DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments, see pages 7-8, filed 09 July 2007, with respect to the rejection of claims 1, 2, and 5 under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph (indefinite), have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1, 2, and 5 under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph (indefinite), has been withdrawn.

1. Upon review of Applicant's revised claims filed 09 July 2007, it is noted that a restriction/election is warranted. Any inconvenience to Applicant is regretted.

2. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

I. Claims 1-4, drawn to a touring bus running route acquisition system, classified in class 701, subclass 202.

II. Claims 5-8, drawn to an arrival notification system, classified in class 340, subclass 989.

3. The inventions are independent or distinct, each from the other because:

Inventions I and II are directed to related products. The related inventions are distinct if the (1) the inventions as claimed are either not capable of use together or can have a materially different design, mode of operation, function, or effect; (2) the inventions do not overlap in scope, i.e., are mutually exclusive; and (3) the inventions as claimed are not obvious variants. See MPEP § 806.05(j). In the instant case, the inventions as claimed have a materially different design. Invention I can be an in-vehicle navigation device. Invention II is drawn to a fleet management device in which would be located at a central point (management center), and would be able to track a fleet of touring buses. Furthermore, the inventions as claimed do not encompass overlapping subject matter and there is nothing of record to show them to be obvious variants.

It should be noted that if the Applicant is of the persuasion that the inventions are not obvious variants, Applicant should state so for the record; this would negate the restriction requirement.

4. Restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper because all these inventions listed in this action are independent or distinct for the reasons given above and there would be a serious search and examination burden if restriction were not required because one or more of the following reasons apply:

(a) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art in view of their different classification;

(b) the inventions have acquired a separate status in the art due to their recognized divergent subject matter;

(c) the inventions require a different field of search (for example, searching different classes/subclasses or electronic resources, or employing different search queries);

Art Unit: 3663

(d) the prior art applicable to one invention would not likely be applicable to another invention;

(e) the inventions are likely to raise different non-prior art issues under 35 U.S.C. 101 and/or 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
